

A NEW STORY

An Eco-Spirituality for Today.

There's an exciting and inspiring new story that needs to be heard – grounded in our Christian Tradition and expressive of God's presence in the universe as the creative, transformative, empowering energy of Love.

You're invited to come on a journey of exploration, to enter into an experience of searching, seeking, questioning, and discovery.

Come with an open mind and an open heart.

Venue: Nano Nagle Centre, 6 Reserve St, Claremont, WA

Time: 3pm to 5pm Sunday: April 21st, 28th, May 5th, and 12th 2024

OR

Venue: St. Paul's Anglican Church, 162 Hampton Road, Beaconsfield, WA

Time: 9 am to 11 am Saturday: April 27th, May 4th, 11th and 18th

Week 1: Trinitarian God

Week 2: God's Presence in Creation

Week 3: God, Evolution, and the Primacy of Love

Week 4: New Wine / New Wineskins

Each week's session will consist of three 40-minute periods: presentation, reflection, small group and open discussion.

Cost: Donation appreciated

Refreshments provided.

Registration: Is essential. Please email ignatianspiritwa@gmail.com to register for this event.

About the Presenter:

John Auer is an experienced spiritual director and giver of the First and Full Spiritual Exercises, having studied at the Ignatian Spirituality Centre in London. He is a past member of the Australian Ecumenical Council for Spiritual Direction. John leads retreats, workshops, and days of reflection on the themes of Contemplative and Ignatian Spirituality.